

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Barre. No Barre resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills, can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mrs. M. M. Nelson, 20 Merchant street, Barre, says: "A severe attack of grip left my kidneys in a weakened condition. The slightest housework tired me, and after I was on my feet for any great time, sharp pains across my back compelled me to stop and rest. Other complications came on, and my kidneys began to act unnaturally. I paid out over a hundred dollars seeking relief, but got none. I became discouraged until some one advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They stopped the trouble in a short time and rid me of the dangerous attack." (Statement given November 10, 1905.)

OVER SIX YEARS LATER, Mrs. Nelson said: "I still use Doan's now and then and find them as excellent as when I first recommended them."

BETHEL

Lawrence Ballou, Aged 4, Lost in Circus Crowd, Trudged Eight Miles.

The Walter L. Main circus gave afternoon and evening exhibitions here yesterday to large and apparently well pleased audiences. There was no disorder and no complaints were made to officers. The only unhappy occurrence was the disappearance for several hours of Lawrence, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ballou of Tunbridge, who became separated from them early in the afternoon on the show grounds. They searched everywhere on the grounds and in the village without results. Then Chief of Police Fred C. Putnam was notified and following several clues took a trip to Randolph in his automobile and found the child trudging bravely along on the sidewalk near A. B. Gay's livery stable in that village. At first he objected to riding with Mr. Putnam, even when the officer told him he would take him to his mother. It was learned that he had declined at least one other chance to ride and had refused to give his name. He had walked eight miles in the four hours between about 2 and 6 o'clock and did not appear much excited nor discouraged. On the return to Bethel he carried on conversation with Mr. Putnam about crops, automobiles and on other subjects, after the manner of a much older boy. The parents were awaiting developments at R. A. Pierce's livery stable, where they had put up their horse and the reunited family soon went on its way rejoicing. Lawrence said that when he missed his people he set out to walk home. He started right but at the Bethel garage took the left turn instead of the right, which leads to South Royalton and Tunbridge. It seems remarkable that so young a child should have remained calm so many hours under such circumstances and should have taken such a walk on a hot day with no signs of exhaustion.

Mrs. Esther Rivers, aged 89 years, of Randolph, is a guest of her grandson, W. C. Bingham. She has lived to see her children's grandchildren.

Robert Stoddard, who volunteered in the U. S. navy, failed in the physical examination and has returned to his former employment at Akron, O.

Recent guests at Mrs. C. E. Hepburn's were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Remington of Colton, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Park O. Gifford and George Hinkle of Newark, N. J., J. C. McComber and Robert Clifford of St. Albans.

Bascom house guests yesterday included G. W. Groom and J. Duguid of St. Albans, P. C. Tinkham and E. J. Burns of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. William Flint and Stanley Flint of Gaysville, L. M. Kinsley and H. F. Ward of Orleans, William P. Stone of Stratford, W. Z. Penell of Montpelier and H. O. Butler of Burlington.

As a result of a hearing before Judge A. G. Witham yesterday, the five children of Mrs. Charles Zurn were committed to the custody of the state board of charities and correction.

Mrs. Ed Norton of Stockbridge was given a hearing yesterday in municipal court on a charge of improper care of her sons as a result of which the younger son, Curtis Norton, aged 12 years, was placed under the state probation officer and ordered sent to a school of agriculture. Complaint was made by Humane Officer J. D. Blackmer of Stockbridge.

A son was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bailey.

Edward J. Lockwood of Rutland, a former principal of Whitcomb high school, has enlisted in the United States navy and has passed the physical examination. He has been practicing law in Rutland since last fall and has a position as instructor in history and commercial law in the Rutland high school. He expects to be called at any time.

RANDOLPH

A farewell reception was given Mrs. Emma Reed at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Howe on Tuesday evening, which proved to be very enjoyable, and was attended by many of her friends in town, with whom she had been associated in church work for many years. The home was decorated with maiden hair fern and white flowers, these being used in abundance in the dining room, into which the guests were invited for punch and wafers. Flowers were everywhere distributed, making the home a scene of great beauty. In the receiving line were the hostess, Mrs. Reed, and Madam Briggs, who is passing her summer in this place, and who has for years been a friend of Mrs. Reed's. Following the meeting, a musical program was given, in which several took part, and during which Rev. R. H. Moore, the pastor of the Methodist church, made a few remarks. At the close of the program, Rev. G. O. Howe presented Mrs. Reed a handsome brooch, the gift of loving friends. Mr. Howe's remarks were very appropriate, but Mrs. Reed's response was short, she being much affected by the kindness of her friends. Evidently it was a surprise, and while it was greatly appreciated, she was unable to express her satisfaction at the thoughtfulness of her friends. Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Smithers of Orleans, who were in town passing a few days, were present in the evening, and on the following day left for Waterbury for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Lucy Edson of Enfield, N. H., closed a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Emery on Wednesday and went to her home.

Mrs. Martha Sumner of Braintree was a business visitor in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. R. H. Ordway, who has been in Lebanon, N. H., since Monday, has returned home.

Mrs. Laura Allis, after a seven weeks' stay in Massachusetts and Connecticut with her daughter and other relatives, returned home on Wednesday.

Miss Mildred Fuller returned on Wednesday from a ten days' stay in Rutland and other neighboring towns, where she visited relatives.

Mrs. Jerome Hart, after a two weeks' stay with her daughter and family, Mrs. W. R. Chase, returned to her home in Waterbury Wednesday.

Nelson Perkins of Northampton, Mass., is passing several days with his niece, Mrs. Joseph Menard. Another niece, Mrs. Richmond Skinner, of Royalton arrived here Wednesday to be her sister's guest, and also visit with him.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dubuc, who have been in town for a month, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery, have returned to their home in Rutland. Mr. Dubuc has been out of health for several weeks and unable to work, but is now somewhat improved, and expects to resume his work soon.

Mrs. Laura Learned of Moretown is passing some time with her sister, Mrs. Farnum, at the home of her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Daniels.

A delegation of seven or eight went from here to Chelsea on Tuesday on Red Cross business, making the trip by automobile.

Dr. J. P. Gifford has tendered his resignation to Gov. Graham as surgeon on the examining board for Orange county, and it is understood that he expects to leave here soon.

GROTON

Warren E. Goodwin of Winchendon, Mass., arrived here Monday and is visiting his brother, I. H. Goodwin.

Mrs. A. E. Lagare and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith were visitors at St. Johnsbury on Sunday.

Mrs. George Eastman and Miss Christie Whitehill went to Woodville, N. H., yesterday for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eastman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Carbee returned yesterday from a few days' outing at their cottage at Groton pond.

Mr. and Mrs. George Church of Bradford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath yesterday.

Ralph Lord and lady friend of St. Johnsbury were at the Lord cottage at Groton pond over Sunday and were callers in the village Saturday.

Rev. F. W. Lewis, scoutmaster, and a bunch of boy scouts are enjoying an outing at Groton pond this week.

Mrs. Albert Eastman and children of St. Johnsbury, who have been visiting relatives in Topsham, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Hatch Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Whitehill of St. Johnsbury were week-end visitors at Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Whitehill's.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Persons on the birth of a son Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Marshall and Dr. and Mrs. Danforth of Hardwick were callers in town Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Pierce of Boltonville was the guest of Mrs. E. F. Clark Friday.

Dr. G. N. Welch and family of Northfield were visitors in town the first of the week.

Mrs. H. L. Tillotson returned from Malden, Mass., Sunday. She was accompanied by her son, Dr. Harris Price, and friend, the party making the trip in Dr. Price's automobile.

A. R. Taylor has recovered from his serious illness sufficiently to be able to ride out.

Mrs. B. S. Eastman took a party of lady friends to St. Johnsbury Monday in her car on Red Cross work.

Mrs. D. E. Gordon was an over-Sunday visitor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Blanchard. She returned to her home at Hillsboro, N. H., Monday, taking with her Dorothy, her small daughter, who has been passing several weeks with her grandparents.

The body of J. B. Bailey, who died very suddenly at his home in West Topsham on Sunday, was brought here yesterday for burial in the family lot in the village cemetery. Mr. Bailey was born in Groton and resided here for many years, being one of the several children of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Bailey. He is survived by a second wife, who was Mrs. Rosa Patten of this town.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY of NEW YORK

MAZOLA does for American cooking what olive oil does for French

THE reason the French are so free from digestive troubles is they never use lard. Animal fats make the food heavy and soggy—they soak into the food.

Mazola, the rich, sweet oil from corn, is used so much hotter than any animal fat—it just crisps over the food. It keeps in all the natural flavor. It's better—and better for you.

No odors through the house when Mazola is used. Being an oil it doesn't have to be melted—measurements exact—no waste.

Is the best homes and restaurants everywhere they are using Mazola on salads and for a vegetable dressing. As good as the best olive oil—and only costs half as much.

Mazola saves animal fats.

If you want to be sure of a pure, golden oil—always the same, delicate and delicious for all cooking and salad uses—see that you get Mazola. Mazola is always uniform. Its preparation is scientific and exact.

For sale in pints, quarts and gallons. (The large sizes are specially economical). Get a can from your grocer today.

Ask your grocer for the valuable Cook Book especially prepared for Mazola users—or write us direct. FREE.

MAZOLA
The Delicious Salad and Cooking Oil
Produced by the CORN PRODUCTS REFINING CO.
P. O. BOX 161 NEW YORK

Perhaps This Delicate Mayonnaise May Be New To You

Yolks of two eggs. 1 pint of Mazola
1 teaspoon of mustard 1 teaspoon of salt
A dash of cayenne or white pepper or 1/2 teaspoon of paprika
2 tablespoons each of lemon juice and vinegar, or 4 tablespoons of vinegar
1/4 teaspoonful sugar
Have all ingredients and mixing utensils cold.
Use a round bottomed mixing bowl, a
Dover egg beater, or wire whisk.
Mix dry ingredients. Add egg yolks and which will mix and add 1/2 teaspoon of vinegar.
Add Mazola drop by drop until the mixture begins to thicken, beating slowly with a Dover beater. As soon as the mixture thickens, add the remainder of the vinegar a little at a time. Now beat in the remainder of the ingredients until all is used. The mayonnaise should be thick enough to hold its shape.
